In-Person Meetings

County of Ventura still holds that AA Meetings are part of Stage 3 reopening. The opening of churches for religious services or cultural ceremonies has no impact on opening AA meets at those facilities. Central Office has weekly phone calls with a Ventura County Coronavirus compliance officer. All county orders and updates can be found at <https://www.vcemergency.com/staywellvc>. This link can also be found at aventuracounty.org

Weekly Zoom Meetings with Central Offices

Office Managers across the county are meeting weekly on Zoom.

Guidelines for Reopening Meetings

Office are working together to create guidelines that should be considered for reopening meeting. Each city and county should first go by guidance provided by their city, county and state.

Website Meeting Disclaimer

Since Central Office cannot verify that meetings, that choose to open, are complying with county orders and have received approval from the county to open, Central Office has put the following disclaimer on the website:

The Central Office of Alcoholics Anonymous of Ventura County has received notice that the following AA meetings are re-opening and will be available for in person meetings.

Central Office is providing notice of these meetings for informational purposes only and takes no position and makes no representations nor guarantees that these meetings comply with current federal, state or local laws as they apply to the current COVID-19 pandemic.

Furthermore, Central Office takes no position and makes no representations nor guarantees that attendance at these meetings is safe and that the meetings do or will comply with currently suggested social distancing or other health care protocols.

Statement to Announce Regarding Central Office Finances

Thanks to the wonderful support of our AA community, Central Office has NOT needed to access our prudent reserve at this time. In order to avoid future access to our reserve funds Central Office desperately needs your support. Your personal and group donations can be made by credit card directly from our website (aventuracounty.org), by VENMO using the id @VCAACO or checks can be mailed to VCAAC, 321 North Aviator St, Camarillo 93010 THANK YOU!!
